

Erie, Pa.,

May 30, 1889.

Hon. Grover Cleveland,
New-York City.

Sir,

Will you kindly give me the names of one or two New-York or other eastern daily papers which you consider as true advocates of democracy?

I am

Very respectfully,

F. A. Biley.

I am not much of a newspaper reader and do not feel like discriminating between papers which profess to be democratic but I still say well of the political structure of The Albany Argus and The Boston Globe
